THE STORY COMING IN

The Bridgeport Sound Tigers open a three-game road trip tonight with a 7:30 p.m. matchup against their most bitter rival, the Hartford Wolf Pack, at the XL Center. The Sound Tigers will try for back-to-back wins following a 4-3 shootout victory against the Providence Bruins last Sunday in come-from-behind fashion. Steve Bernier scored twice and Bridgeport rallied from an early two-goal deficit to eventually earn the win in a three-round shootout. Devon Toews also scored in regulation and Christopher Gibson (2-2-0) made 29 saves, including eight magnificent stops in overtime, while Chris Bourque netted the only shootout tally for either team. The Sound Tigers continue a stretch of eight straight games against a division rival tonight.

TIGERS VS. WOLF PACK

Tonight's game will mark the first of 10 meetings between the Nutmeg State rivals this season, and the first of five contests at the XL Center. Bridgeport earned points in nine of its 10 matchups against Hartford last year (7-1-1-1), including a 4-0-1-0 record in Connecticut's capital city. Seven of the 10 meetings this season will take place before New Year's Day. Bridgeport leads the all-time series 83-74-13 (170 games).

VIEW FROM HARTFORD

Keith McCambridge's club is right at .500 through its first nine games, but Hartford is looking to respond this evening following back-to-back regulation losses for the first time this season. On Wednesday, Shawn O'Donnell scored twice and Steven Fogarty added his fourth goal of the year, but the Wolf Pack allowed five straight tallies to the Lehigh Valley Phantoms to open the game and suffered a 7-3 loss at home. Dustin Tokarski was pulled just 4:36 into the game after allowing three goals on four shots. Overall, Peter Holland and 20-year-old Lias Andersson pace Hartford with eight points in nine games. Andersson's first pro goal came against Bridgeport in just his sixth game last February.

DAL COLLE'S DELIGHT

Michael Dal Colle is off to a strong start in the third and final year of his entry-level deal with the New York Islanders. The former fifth overall pick leads the Sound Tigers in scoring with eight points (three goals, five assists) through six games and also paces the club with three multi-point efforts this season. He had just four multi-point outings in 2017-18. Dal Colle scored two goals last weekend - his 24th and 25th AHL tallies.

FREE HOCKEY FRENZY

The Sound Tigers have gone past regulation in three of their last four games, including twice last weekend when the club captured an overtime and shootout win. Bridgeport is 2-1 beyond 60 minutes of play this season after finishing last season 7-8 in those situations. The only other teams who have gone to overtime more this season are the Milwaukee Admirals and Ontario Reign (four times).

KING OF THE CREASE

Christopher Gibson won each of his two starts last weekend and played more than 60 minutes in both games. On Sunday, Gibson not only defeated a high-powered Lehigh Valley offense, but he did so making eight miraculous saves in overtime and not allowing a goal on three shootout attempts. The 2018 AHL All-Star is in his fourth season with the Sound Tigers and currently ranks fourth all-time in games played with Bridgeport (90) and fifth in team wins (46).

QUICK HITS

Mike Sislo saw his three-game goal streak come to an end last Sunday... It was the 10th time in his eight-year AHL career that he scored in at least three straight contests (Sislo had an eight-game goal streak from Feb. 6, 2016 – Feb. 24, 2016 while playing for the Albany Devils)... The Sound Tigers' penalty kill is 11th in the AHL (82.8%), but it's 11-for-11 on the road specifically, one of just three perfect teams along with the Colorado Eagles and Laval Rocket... Bridgeport recalled Jeff Kubiak from the Worcester Railers (ECHL) prior to Sunday's game and the rookie forward logged his first career AHL assist on Devon Toews' second-period tally... Brent Thompson is eight wins away from his 200th as Bridgeport's head coach... Chris Bourque is five points away from his 700th in the AHL.
