Scott Gordon – Head Coach

Scott Gordon is entering his fourth season as head coach of the Lehigh Valley Phantoms following back-to-back seasons of 48 wins and 47 wins. In 2017-18, he guided the Phantoms to their first division crown in over a decade. Gordon enters the 2018-19 season with 350 career wins in the American Hockey League which rates 10th all-time. He is projected to reach his 1000th career game as a professional hockey head coach at the midway point of the season.

On July 13, 2015, Scott Gordon was named the ninth head coach of the Lehigh Valley Phantoms. Gordon, 55, is a native of Brockton, Massachusetts and most recently had served as an assistant coach with the Toronto Maple Leafs from 2011 to 2014. Prior to that, he was the head coach of the New York Islanders for parts of three seasons from 2008 to 2010.

Gordon brings eight years of AHL coaching experience to the Phantoms. After serving as an assistant coach for parts of three seasons, he replaced Mike Sullivan as head coach of the Providence Bruins late in the 2002-03 campaign and guided the Bruins over the next five seasons. During that time, Gordon registered a 221-141-47 overall mark en route to playoff appearances in five of those six campaigns. In his final season at the helm in Providence, the Bruins produced a 55-18-7 overall record and a league-leading 117 points earning Gordon the Louis A.R. Pieri Memorial Award presented to the AHL's Coach of the Year.

In addition to his professional coaching experience, Gordon also has extensive international experience behind the bench. He served as an assistant coach for the United States at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver helping the U.S. claim a silver medal. What's more, he was an assistant coach for the United States at both the 2009 and 2011 IIHF World Championships.

After an eight-year career as a professional goaltender, which included 23 games with the Quebec Nordiques, Gordon began his coaching career as an assistant coach with the Atlanta Knights of the International Hockey League (IHL) from 1994 to 1996. He earned his first head coaching position in 1998 with the Roanoke Express of the East Coast Hockey League (ECHL). In two seasons behind the bench in Roanoke, Gordon compiled an 82-42-16 overall record and guided the Express to the postseason in both campaigns.
