NEED TO KNOW TODAY

- Jakob Forsbacka Karlsson missed his first game of the season last night due to injury. Both he and Jakub Zboril are not expected to play this weekend.
- Paul Postma was assigned to Providence Feb 26 after clearing waivers.
- Matt Beleskey was traded to the New York Rangers Feb 26 along with Ryan Spooner, Ryan Lindgren a 2018 1st round pick and a 2019 7th round pick in exchange for Rick Nash.
- Rob O’Gara was traded to the New York Rangers Feb 20 along with a 3rd round pick by Boston in exchange for Nick Holden
- Josh Hennessy scored his 150th pro goal Feb. 23 in a 5-3 P-Bruins win.
- Szwarc was sent back to Providence Feb 19. from emergency recall to Boston.
- Czarnik is back with Providence after he was recalled Feb 5. His 7-game point streak is the longest by a P-Bruin this season.
- McIntyre won AHL Player of the Week for the week ending Jan. 21. He recorded back-to-back shutouts for the first time in his career, stopping all 55 shots faced.
- Czarnik is 7th in the AHL in scoring. Szwarc is 4th in the AHL in rating. Zboril is 3rd among rookie defensemen in rating. Binnington is 3rd in GAA.

AGAINST THE WOLF PACK

- Providence is 4-4-0-0 against the Pack this season with their largest win of the year. They were 6-2-0-1 vs Hartford last season.
- Colby Cave had both his first pro game and first pro goal come against the Pack.
- Ben Marshall’s 1st career goal came January 8 against Hartford (4th AHL game).
- Fitzgerald and Johansson each earned their first career assist on the same play against Hartford last season.
- Providence’s franchise record for saves in a game came against Hartford in 2000 when John Grahame stopped 63 shots from the Wolf Pack in the playoffs

BRUIN BITES

Draft class of 2015

Much of Providence's roster was acquired via the 2015 NHL Draft: Zboril (1), Senyshyn (1), Forsbacka Karlsson (2), Lauzon (2), Vladar (3) & Gabrielle (5). Other notables from that class are Jake DeBrusk (1) & Brandon Carlo (2) who are in Boston. Czarnik was also signed as an undrafted free agent in April of 2015.

Hey now, you're an All-Star

Czarnik, Binnington and head coach Jay Leach represented the Providence Bruins and the Atlantic Division at the 2018 AHL All-Star Classic. Czarnik scored two goals and an assist while Binnington stopped 8 of 11 shots he faced. Binnington was also named Top Goaltender of the Skills competition.

May the Szwarc be with you

Szwarc, who set career highs in all scoring categories last season, already has 4 multi-goal games this year. He had two of those type games all of last regular season.

Rude Welcome

Providence is undefeated in regulation (6-0-1) vs new AHL franchises (BEL / LAV / BNG) this year.

Hats off to you

Fitzgerald recorded a "Gordie Howe Hat-Trick" December 1, the first of his career and only one for a P-Bruins player this season.

Perfect Attendance

Tommy Cross is the only P-Bruin to suit up in every game this season.

Coach 'em up

Three former P-Bruins head coaches have moved on to become current NHL head coaches: Peter Laviolette (NSH), Mike Sullivan (PIT) and Bruce Cassidy (BOS). Kevin Dean, the team's head coach last season, is also in the NHL as an assistant (BOS).

Shipping Up to Boston

Ten players have skated for Boston & Providence this year: Anders Bjork, Matt Beleskey, Peter Cehlarik, Jordan Szwarc, Kenny Agostino, Colby Cave, Austin Czarnik, Rob O'Gara, Matt Grzelcyk and Danton Heinen.

- Captain of Quinnipiac during his Senior season and finished his collegiate career with 19 goals and 37 assists for 56 points in 284 games. He also had 186 penalty minutes and a +39 rating over his four year career with the Bobcats.
- Named 2016 ECAC Hockey Tournament Most Outstanding Player during junior season in addition to the All-Tournament Team and All-Frozen Four Team. He set career highs with seven goals and 21 assists for 28 points and was tied for third among ECAC defensemen in all three categories.
- Four of his eight multi-point games came in the postseason and he led Quinnipiac with 11 assists in 12 points in the playoffs. Clifton tallied points in six of nine playoff games, including an assist in the National Championship vs. North Dakota. He assisted on the game-winning goal in the Bobcat's first Whitelaw Cup in program history.
- As a Freshman in 2013-14 he had the second-best plus/minus rating (+17) on the team and his five goals scored were the most for a Quinnipiac defenseman. Also joined the team with his brother, Tim.
- Joined Quinnipiac directly from the U.S. National Developmental Team. In 25 games with Team USA in 2012-13, Clifton scored three goals with six assists while posting a +11 rating. He also suited up for Team USA in the World U-18 Tournament where his only goal came in the final game vs Canada.
- Did not sign after being drafted by the Coyotes in 2013 and shortly after becoming an unrestricted free agent signed a deal with the Providence Bruins August 16, 2017.
- Made pro debut October 7 vs Springfield, earned first career point November 19 vs Hershey and scored first pro goal December 9 against Utica.

- Selected in the first round (#15 overall) of the 2015 NHL draft by Boston and signed a 3-year entry level deal with the club November 12, 2015. He was the third of three straight first round draft picks for Boston in 2015 (Jakub Zboril and Jake DeBrusk).
- Played in his fourth season in the OHL for the Sault Ste. Marie Greyhounds. In his first year with the club he was named to the second All-Rookie team. He was been an alternate captain the past two seasons for the club.
- Tied for sixth in the league in goals during the 2015-16 season, scoring 45 goals in addition to 20 assists and 65 points. His 42 goals in 2016-17 were also tied for sixth in the OHL.
- In his four years in the OHL totaled 195 games played, scoring 114 goals and 63 assists for 177 points and a +50 rating.
- Prior to his time in the OHL, he played with the Smiths Falls Bears of the Central Canada Hockey League, skating in 57 games scoring 22 goals (second on the team) and 10 assists for 32 points. This was good enough to place him on the CCHL All-Rookie Team.
- Added to the P-Bruins roster April 18 when he was reassigned by Boston from Sault Ste. Marie.
- Never appeared in a regular season game for Providence, but made his pro debut in Game 3 of the Division Semi-Finals against Wilkes-Barre Scranton.
- Scored first pro goal in Providence's 2017-18 opener against Springfield.

Jay Leach, Head Coach

Jay Leach was named the 12th head coach of the Providence Bruins on July 31, 2017 after serving as an assistant coach for the team during the 2016-17 season. He takes over for his former boss Kevin Dean, who was promoted to an assistant coaching role with the Boston Bruins early during the 2017 offseason. The former captain of the Providence Bruins and Providence College Friars enters his first season as an AHL head coach. He is the third former Providence captain to come back and serve as the team's head coach, with Peter Laviolette and Bill Armstrong being the others.

Leach, 37, served as assistant coach of the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins in 2015-16, helping the team advance to the quarterfinals of the 2016 Calder Cup Playoffs. He was an assistant coach for Adler Mannheim of the Deutsche Eishockey Liga (DEL) in Germany in 2014-15 and helped lead that team to the league championship.

A native of Syracuse, New York, Leach was originally selected 115th overall by the Arizona Coyotes in the fifth round of the 1998 NHL Entry Draft and played 11 professional seasons from 2001-13. He appeared in 70 games at the NHL level with the New Jersey Devils, San Jose Sharks, Montreal Canadiens, Tampa Bay Lightning and Boston Bruins, registering three points on one goal and two assists with 60 penalty minutes.

The 6-foot-4, 220-pound defenseman also compiled 25 goals and 62 assists for 87 points with 608 penalty minutes and a plus-34 rating at the AHL level with the Albany Devils, Worcester Sharks, Lowell Devils, Portland Pirates, Norfolk Admirals, Providence Bruins, Bridgeport Sound Tigers and Springfield Falcons. In addition to captaining the Providence Bruins from 2005-07, he served as captain of the Worcester Sharks in 2010-11 and the Albany Devils in 2012-13. He finished his P-Bruins career with 11 goals and 21 assists for 32 points in 209 games with 324 penalty minutes and a +17 rating.

Prior to his professional career, Leach played four seasons at Providence College from 1997-2001. As a senior in 2000-01, he served as team captain and established career highs with four goals and 21 assists for 25 points in 40 games. Overall he suited up in 142 games for the Friars, totaling six goals and 46 assists for 52 points while amassing 276 penalty minutes.

Trent Whitfield, Assistant Coach

Trent Whitfield, 39, recently served as assistant coach of the Calgary Hitmen of the Western Hockey League (WHL) in 2015-16. The previous season he was assistant coach of the Portland Pirates of the American Hockey League (AHL) in 2014-15.

Whitfield enjoyed a successful 15-year playing career at the ECHL, AHL and NHL levels. The 5-foot-11, 209-pound forward skated in 194 NHL games with the Boston Bruins, St. Louis Blues, Washington Capitals and N.Y. Rangers, compiling 11 goals and 18 assists for 29 points with 104 penalty minutes. He also made 18 NHL playoff game appearances, including four with the Bruins. Whitfield played in 812 games at the AHL level with the Providence Bruins, Peoria Rivermen and Portland Pirates, totaling 247 goals and 349 assists for 596 points with 564 penalty minutes. During his final season as a pro, Whitfield was the alternate captain of HC Bolzano of the Austrian Hockey League (EBEL) in 2013-14, where he recorded 14 goals and 18 assists for 32 points in 54 games.

Whitfield served as a captain on six teams, in addition to his one season as an alternate captain for HC Bolzano in 2013-14. He wore the “C” for the Providence Bruins in 2009-10, 2011-12 and 2012-13, for the Peoria Rivermen in 2008-09 and for the Spokane Chiefs (WHL) in 1996-97.

The Alameda, Saskatchewan native was originally selected by the Bruins in the fourth round (100th overall) of the 1996 NHL Entry Draft.

Spencer Carbery, Assistant Coach

Carbery, 35, spent last season as head coach of the Saginaw Spirit of the OHL after five seasons as Head Coach and Director of Hockey Operations for the ECHL South Carolina Stingrays. Carbery enjoyed great success at the helm of South Carolina, a team affiliated with the Boston Bruins for three of his five seasons. With the Stingrays in 2014-15, his team won 23-consecutive games and 13 consecutive on the road, both ECHL records. The 2013-14 ECHL Coach of the Year, his team made the playoffs and recorded a higher winning percentage than the prior year in each of his five seasons. Carbery was also an assistant coach for the club during the 2010-11 season.

The Victoria, British Columbia native skated in four professional seasons with the Bakersfield Condors, Stockton Thunder, Fresno Falcons and Stingrays of the ECHL and the Tulsa Oilers of the Central Hockey League totaling 117 points (48g-69a) in 244 games while winning the Kelly Cup Championship during the 2008-09 season with South Carolina.
