Head-to-head:

This is the fourth of eight meetings between the Wolf Pack and Checkers this season, and the second of four at the XL Center between the Atlantic Division rivals during the 2022-23 campaign. The Checkers are right back in Hartford on Wednesday night for a 7:00 p.m. puck drop. The teams then will meet again on January 10th and 11th in Charlotte before concluding the season series on March 5th in Hartford. The Wolf Pack won the last meeting 3-2 in overtime at the XL Center on October 29th. Jonny Brodzinski and Lauri Pajuniemi scored in regulation, while Andy Welinski potted the overtime winner 47 seconds into the extra frame. The home team is 3-0-0 in the season series, while two of the first three meetings have required overtime.

Wolf Pack Notebook:

The Wolf Pack collected their first road win of the season last night, 3-1 over the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins. Tim Gettinger opened the scoring with Hartford's first shorthanded goal of the season, converting a pass from Tanner Fritz 14:34 into the contest. Drew O'Connor would tie the tilt with a powerplay goal 7:35 into the second period, but the Wolf Pack would pull away for good when Pajuniemi ripped home his team-leading fifth goal of the season just 1:54 into the final frame. Gettinger would tack on an empty net goal at 19:52 to preserve the win. Brodzinski (2 g, 5 a), Welinski (1 g, 6 a), and Turner Elson (2 g, 5 a) are tied for the team lead in scoring with seven points each. Pajuniemi's five goals are tops on the club, while Gettinger is second with four.

Checkers Notebook:

The Checkers dropped their fourth straight road game last night, falling 5-2 to the Providence Bruins at Amica Mutual Pavilion. Justin Sourdif scored his first career professional goal at 13:55 of the first period, while Connor Bunnaman also tacked on a goal in the second, but five different Bruins would score to hand the Checkers the loss. Fabian Lysell was credited with the winning goal for the Bruins. Riley Nash leads the Checkers in scoring with eight points (2 g, 6 a) in ten games this season. Zac Dalpe, meanwhile, leads the club in goals with five in his first eight games.
