Head-to-head:

This is the second of twelve meetings between the Wolf Pack and Thunderbirds this season, and the first of six at the XL Center between the I-91 rivals during the 2022-23 season. The Thunderbirds will return to Hartford for the next installment of this rivalry on Thursday December 22nd. Six days later, on December 28th, the Wolf Pack and T-Birds will meet for the fourth time this season at the MassMutual Center. Springfield took a 5-1 decision in the first meeting this season this past Friday night at the MassMutual Center. Matthew Kessel opened the scoring with his first regular-season professional goal 11:34 into the contest, giving the T-Birds a lead they would not lose. Will Bitten and Josh Leivo would tack on goals at 15:58 and 16:35 of the first period to give the Thunderbirds a commanding 3-0 lead. Leivo would make it 4-0 just 44 seconds into the middle stanza, before Turner Elson scored the Wolf Pack's lone goal at 8:34 of the third period. Leivo would complete the hat-trick at 17:59 of the third, finishing the scoring on the night.

Wolf Pack Notebook:

The Wolf Pack suffered their second straight loss on Saturday night, falling 5-3 to the Bridgeport Islanders at Total Mortgage Arena. Samuel Bolduc opened the scoring for the Isles with the game's only first period goal, but C.J. Smith would tie the affair 1:00 into the second. Arnaud Durandeau broke the tie at 2:46, however, giving the Isles a lead they would not lose. Durandeau and Andy Andreoff extended the lead with goals 3:06 apart, coming at the 10:00 and 13:06 marks of the third period. The Wolf Pack would cut the deficit to one, as Tim Gettinger and Gustav Rydahl would score 33 seconds apart. It wouldn't be enough, however, as William Dufour hit the empty net at 19:41. Elson leads the Wolf Pack with seven points (2 g, 5 a) through eight games. Jonny Brodzinski (2 g, 4 a) and Andy Welinski (1 g, 5 a) are tied for second in scoring with six points each. Smith and Lauri Pajuniemi both have three goals on the season, tied for the team lead.

Thunderbirds Notebook:

The Thunderbirds saw their six-game point streak come to an end on Saturday night at the hands of the Providence Bruins at the MassMutual Center by a score of 3-2. Fabian Lysell opened the scoring 1:44 into the contest, but Mathias Laferriere and Matthew Highmore scored 59 seconds apart at 18:00 and 18:59 to give the T-Birds a 2-1 lead at the first intermission. Luke Toporowski would tie the game 3:00 into the second, while Joey Abate scored his first professional goal at 16:00 to give the Bruins the lead for good. Brandon Bussi made nine third period saves to cement the victory for Providence. Highmore leads the T-Birds in scoring with 12 points (3 g, 9 a), while Nathan Todd is second in scoring with ten points (7 g, 3 a). Todd's seven goals lead the team, while Bitten leads the AHL in shorthanded goals with three on the season.
