LAST TIME OUT

The Checkers earned a weekend split with the Utica Comets on Sunday, knocking off their North Division rivals 6-3 on Sunday afternoon. After falling into a 2-0 hole just 3:10 into the contest, the Checkers roared back with a vengeance scoring the games next five goals. Will Lockwood started the scoring with yet another Checkers shorthanded goal, their league-leading sixteenth of the season, while Eamon Powell netted his first professional goal to even the score at 2-2 before the end of the first. In the second period, Brett Chorske registered his second goal in his last three games, while Oliver Okuliar and Kyle Crisculo logged power-play tallies to sent the Checkers out front, 5-2. In the final minute of the second, Utica would pull within two goals, and came a tenth-of-a-second away from making it a 5-4 game going into the intermission, but a lengthy review determined that a would-be-goal was in fact scored after the time expired. Still out in front 5-3, Riley Bezeau scored his second goal of the season after missing the last 14 games, and Charlotte cruised to victory. Special teams was a highlight for the Checkers with their power-play converted on two of their five chances, and the penalty-kill fighting off Utica on three of four man-advantages while also adding the Lockwood shortie. Cooper Black earned the win in goal turning aside 17 of 20 Comets shots for his eleventh win of his rookie campaign. Nico Daws suffered the loss for Utica, allowing six goals on 33 shots.

AIN'T NO CHORE

Brett Chorske has burst onto the AHL scene following his collegiate career with Colgate University and Colorado College. In total, the Edina, MN native racked up 73 pts in 111 games between the two schools and now had three points (2G, 1A) in five games in the professional ranks. His goal and assist on Sunday marks his first multi-point game of his career.

THE NEED FOR SEED

With just three games left in the regular season, the Charlotte Checkers are still in the hunt for the Atlantic Division crown. While clinching the top spot would require a perfect finish from Charlotte and a winless stretch from the first-place Hershey Bears, a second-place finish — and a coveted first-round bye — is still within reach. On the flip side, the race remains tight, and slipping to third or fourth would mean opening the Calder Cup Playoffs in the first round. The good news? If that happens, the Checkers would still hold home ice advantage in a best-of-three showdown against either Springfield or Lehigh Valley.
